

COFFEE WITH THE DEVIL -- by L Jane Huff (on www.amazon.com)

1888 Press Release - Brilliant feel to the words praisful and adventurous www.amazon.com for ordering.

Brilliantly crafted short stories and insights, this book is a thought provoking stimulating, read, it reaches for the heart and soul, a christian message so needed in today's society, a way of saying its ok to dream for a better world, its important to understand the difference, we all can make in our world.

Coffee with the devil has a comical spin on faith and family.

L Jane huff a southern girl, well traveled and well aware of obstacles in life and how devastating a tragedy can be. Jane tries to embrace a deeper, part of the mind, and move down to the heart, colleged educated, entrepreneur and inventor, Jane has made a point in bringing all those experiences to the forefront, bringing forward a provocative, stimulating conversating about honor and respect, its all been and open door, for Jane to write about her up bring, and her spiritual connections with the divine has made it a grand venture., a awesome spin on love and family and life. More than anything Jane is inspiring and innovative, charming at the most, mixing together a savey yet intriguing way to view the world not through rose len, join her in her journey when you read her books.

Raised in a single parent home Jane, understood hard work and dedication at an early age, Jane became a life coach, and motivator, WRITER and trend setter, friend to her fans. Jane is peaceful in her approach and kind, she possess a talent few can humbleness and exploration of life .

COFFEE WITH THE DEVIL ... will leave you in awe and wonder and amaze you to the spin.

This author is creative, and goal orientated one of her goals is to help bridge world peace among the races, jane intends to use her writing as a gap to mend all ghost of our pass, and make us all award of our responsibility to the planet to do so.

Feel free to contact her at (keyskeys222 (@) gmail dot com for more info

<http://www.ljanehuff.com>

###